All 128 Dead in Plane Wreckage in Grand Canyon

By FRANK WETZEL
and Lawrence Malkin

GRAND CANYON, Ariz. (AP) — Helicopter crews flew into the treacherous eastern neck of Arizona's Grand Canyon today to remove 128 dead from the wreckage of two giant airliners which crashed in commercial aviation's worst disaster.

There were no survivors. A Trans World Airlines Super Constellation and a United Air Lines DC7 apparently collided in flight high above the northern Arizona wastelands Saturday, then plunged in flames almost straight down into the canyon.

The first helicopter left Grand Canyon Airport shortly after dawn for the remote section of the gorge where the seared wreckage lies on two adjacent spires of rock.

A team of investigators also went into the canyon by helicopter this morning seeking to determine the cause of the tragedy. "We are just going in to get what's left of the planes," said R. P. Parrshall of Washington, heading a team of investigators from the Civil Aeronautics Board's Bureau of Safety Investigation.

Both planes were on route east from Los Angeles. The Constellation carried 64 passengers and a crew of 6; the DC7 53 passengers and 5 crew members.

The two jagged buttes on which the wreckage was found are a two-day hike over perilous terrain. The only way to get there sooner is by helicopter.

Events leading up to the twin crash were a fantastic series of coincidences.

The flights began on a sunny morning in Los Angeles. The planes took off three minutes apart, the Super Constellation first, then the DC7.

At Daggett, Calif., on the Mojave Desert, the CAA reported, the TWA pilot asked to change his altitude from 19,000 to 21,000 feet. Before the CAA could tell him, the TWA pilot was flying at that altitude.

The CAA approved and informed the TWA pilot that the United craft was at 21,000 feet. An official said, he did not know if the DC7 knew of the flight change but that notification was not necessary because the TWA craft was supposed to be flying in the clear.

The two liners were next heard from over the Arizona-California border about 200 miles east of Los Angeles.

The Constellation, bound for Kansas City, checked in at 10:55 a.m. To the south, the DC7, en route to New York, reported it was over Lake Mohave on the Colorado River at 10:58.

The next air mail message heard from either plane came from the DC7 at 11:32 a.m. It said: "We are going..."

According to flight plans, both pilots were supposed to check in over a spot on the Painted Desert, some 20 miles west of Grand Canyon village, at precisely the same time, 11:31 a.m.

Court Okays Starting Date for SS Tax

By TOM DYGDAR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The beginning of Social Security participation by employees of the state Highway Department was set at Jan. 1, 1955 by the Arkansas Supreme Court today over the protests of the Highway Commission.

The ruling by the Supreme Court in agreement with the wishes of Gov. Orval Faubus.

The Highway Commission contended that the date of participation should be Jan. 1, 1956.

Employees of the Highway Department will be required to make Social Security payments retroactive to Jan. 1, 1955.

Gov. Faubus said he favored starting the Social Security participation 18 months ago instead of 18 months ago so several older employees of the department could be included.

The Supreme Court decision upheld Pulaski Chancery Court.

Employees of the Highway Department voted in late 1955 to participate in the Social Security program. This choice for state employees was provided by Act 240 of 1951.

The state comptroller set the date of first participation as Jan. 1, 1955. This action was taken in December 1955.

In the Highway Commission's authorization to the highway director to begin participation, the starting date was set as Jan. 1, 1956.

WHAT'S COOKING, MAMIE? — In Washington, D.C., the First Lady receives the 19,000th copy of a book entitled "Who Says We Can't Cook?", published by the Women's National Press Club. Presenting the book to Mrs. Eisenhower is Josephine Ripley of the Christian Science Monitor, chairman of the Cook Book Committee.

Visiting Day Here Attracts 375 Negroes

Annual Negro Visiting Day was held Saturday at the Fruit and Truck Branch Experiment Station where over 375 colored people observed the research work being conducted at the station. The visitors from seventeen Southwest Arkansas counties were shown the latest developments in watermelon varieties for will and leafspot disease resistance. Other topics included pasture studies, the seeding of small grain in sod, cotton insect control and cucumber breeding, varieties, fertilizers and leafspot disease work.

On the campus were special demonstrations on the remodeling of a home, poultry flock management, an insect display, and safe driving.

Bishop O. L. Sherman, Presiding Bishop of the Sixteenth Episcopal District of the A. M. E. Church of North Little Rock was principal speaker on the afternoon program. He gave an exceptionally good inspirational, devotional, and informative address to the group.

Many wonderful talent numbers were rendered by the young people attending the day.

Police Probe Burglary and Wrecks

Over the weekend Hope City Police investigated a break-in, arrested two persons for Texas officers and reported two accidents. Officers said about $10 in small change was stolen from Byers Swap Shop. The burglar entered the store through a window.

Arthur R. Cowans and Leroy Fulcher, soldiers from Fort Hood, Texas were picked up here at the request of the sheriff of Athens, Texas. City officers said the men were wanted for beating an elderly man in the Texas town.

A Mexican listed as Rodolfo Krus, 30, was arrested here for illegal entry into the U. S. He was turned over to Border officials.

Officers Burke and Orr said a car driven by Henry Moore backed into a parked half ton truck and careened off into a third vehicle driven by Guy Higgins on Third Street Saturday. The truck was owned by C. D. Ward of Emmet. Both vehicles were damaged, officers said.

A Few Facts Which a Writer Belives to Be of Interest to His Long List of Readers

That King Louis XIV of France had 412 beds, and Ludwig II of Bavaria slept in a bed shaped like a cathedral.

That Cardinal Richelieu was so fond of his oversized bed he insisted on taking it with him on his travels, and that King Richard III, who showed an equal fondness for his bed, too, did so because he kept his money hidden in it.

That a British magistrate recently ruled no bed could be called a double bed unless it was at least 30 by 96 inches.

That the common cold is responsible for more than 20 percent of the industrial absenteeism in America, but science still doesn't know what specific organ-

Six Killed in Georgia Accident

GRIFFIN, Ga. (AP) — Six persons were killed and a seventh seriously injured when one car smashed broadside into another vehicle at a highway intersection yesterday.

The survivor, Joe An Hyde, 24, of Senoia, was in serious condition at a Griffin hospital. Her parents, Archie G. Hyde, 56, and Virginia Lou Hyde, 47, and a sister Elaine, 3, were killed.

The statement by Young was the first definite indication that the Grand Jury planned to investigate a job after reported by Faubus as well as was reported by Lucretia as well as the Little Rock Sanitation Department.

Snoddy Starts Campaign for Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — One candidate for governor will open his campaign formally today and all five expect to hit full stride before the week is out.

Former state Sen. Jim Snoddy is scheduled to make his opening speech over a 9-station television network at 9 tonight.

Gov. Orval Faubus, running for a second term Democratic nomination, will open his campaign at Clarksville Friday night. The governor's speech will be carried on a statewide radio hookup and will be filmed for possible later use on television.

The staunch segregationist in the midst of five opponents of integration, Jim Johnson of Crossett, considers he states rights rally that drafted him two months ago as his formal opening.

Faubus, Snoddy and Johnson are scheduled to speak Wednesday at the Fourth of July picnic and political rally at the northeast Arkansas community of Poria. The day-long affair traditionally draws most candidates for state office.

A presidential aspirant, Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), will speak at 3:30 p. m.

Two other candidates for governor, S. K. Prosser of Conway and Ben F. Pippin of Little Rock, plan to spend the week shaking hands.

Prosser said he would attend the Arkansas convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Pippin planned a trip to south Arkansas. Neither had speeches on his agenda.

Snoddy is the first candidate for governor of Arkansas to turn his campaign kickoff over to television. His speech will be carried by stations at Texarkana, El Dorado, Monroe, La., Memphis, Springfield.

Faubus to Go Before Jury in Bribing Probe

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The foreman of the Plaski County Grand Jury today said that Gov. Orval Faubus would appear as the first witness in an investigation of attempted bribing of public officials.

L. C. Young, foreman, said that July 10 tentatively had been set as the date to open hearings. He said that Faubus had asked to appear.

The statement by Young was the first definite indication that the Grand Jury planned to investigate a job after reported by Faubus as well as was reported by Lucretia as well as the Little Rock Sanitation Department.

Faubus said in a speech at Clarksville that he turned down an indirect offer of $125,000 last year from a group seeking the permit for horse racing at Hot Springs. He did not identify the person who offered the bribe nor did he say whether it was one of three bidders.

The franchise was awarded to Oaklawn Jockey Club, which has held the permit for the past 20 years on its high bid.

Mayor Woodrow Mann scheduled a City Council meeting for Thursday to discuss reported offers to the sanitation department in connection with the purchase of 13 new garbage trucks.

Mann quoted Curtis Woods, director of the Sanitation Department, as saying two attempts had been made to bribe him in connection with the trucks.

Ike Buckles Down to Work in Office

By D. CRAGH

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower buckled down to some routine of his office today, meeting with staff aides who flew here from Washington with brief cases full of official business.

Chief presidential assistant Sherman Adams and other aides arrived at 9:55 a. m. for a work session with the convalescing president in his far room.

"How does it feel to be commuting again?" a reporter asked Adams, referring to the period last November and December when Eisenhower was recovering here from a heart attack and Adams flew up almost daily.

"Seems like old times," Adams replied with a smile.

Others who arrived included Col. Andrew J. Goodpastor, White House staff secretary; Gerald D. Morgan, the President's special counsel; and Wayne Hawks, White House chief of records.

The aerial shuttle between Washington and Gettysburg was the same one used when Eisenhower recuperated at his estate here from his heart attack last November and December.

Yesterday was the Elm a la 40th wedding anniversary. They observed it by cutting a cake which already had been cut in honor of their weekend house guests, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Leonard D. Heaton, who were married 10 years after the Eisenhower's.

In addition the President and his wife received a number of gifts and messages. Among the gifts were an Aberdeen Angus heifer for the farm, herd and flowering peach tree. The heifer was the gift of the 48 Republican state chairmen. The tree was sent by White House correspondents now covering his stay in Gettysburg.

The Eisenhower's also exchanged personal gifts. The President gave his wife a heart-shaped medalion. She gave him a gold-framed portrait of herself.

The medalion, which Mrs. Eisenhower wore around her neck, had a calendar of the month of July engraved on it, with the anniversary ruby-sudded and the words "Ike to Mamie, 1916-1956."

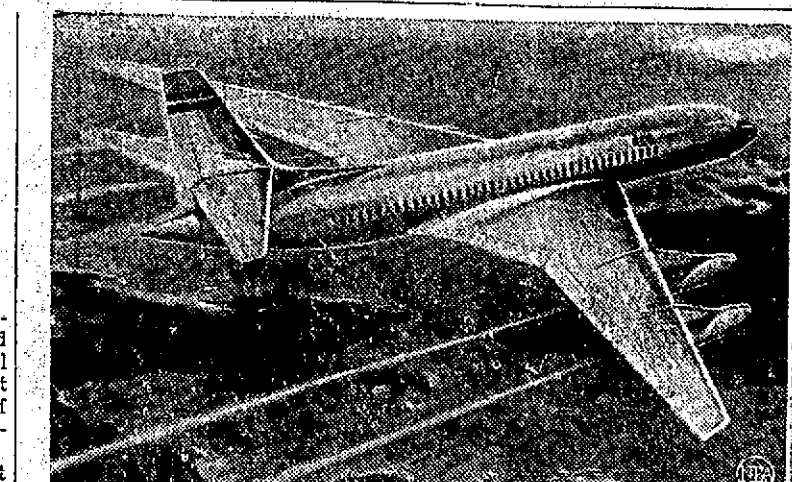

Eisenhower was reported by

Infant Son of Mr., Mrs. Orr Dies in Dallas

John Austin Orr, 8-month-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Orr of Hope, died Sunday in a Dallas hospital. Besides his parents he is survived by five brothers and sisters, Charles M. Larry R. Norma Lee Orr, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Orr of Hope, Mr. and Mrs. Luther C. Baxley of McNeil.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Monday at Herndon-Cornelius Funeral Home Chapel by the Rev. Bill Moore. Burial will be in Evening Shade. Active pallbearers: Carl D. Orr, Bill and James Baxley and Joe B. O'Bryen.

FOUR "BOWS" FOR ARROW — Shimmering gold in color, "Golden Arrow," above, is scheduled to be coarsing along America's skyways in 1959. The four-jet passenger ship, seating 60-plus, will be shot into production by fourfold efforts of Convair division of General Dynamics, Hughes Tool Co., Delta Airlines and General Electric. Some 40 planes are on order for the newcomer to the highly competitive jet field. Expedited, it's designed to cruise at 35,000 feet at top cruising speed of 609 m.p.h. On the drawing board, it streaks from Los Angeles to Chicago in 3 hours, 24 minutes.

NEA Urges School Bill Action

By HERMAN R. ALLEN

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The National Education Association laid down a transcontinental barrage of telegrams today in a final effort to push federal school building aid through to passage in this waning session of Congress.

"Hundreds of telegrams already have been sent to congressmen," said James L. McCaskill, executive secretary of the NEA Legislative Commission, in an interview. "and more will go out today from individuals, state associations and other NEA groups to let them know how American teachers feel about this legislation."

The NEA is meeting here in convention. In Washington today the House scheduled debate on amendments to a bill which would provide $1,600,000,000 over four years to help states meet classroom shortages. The federal money would be matched dollar for dollar with state funds.

People Backed Stalin, Red Command Says

By ROY ESSOYAN

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union Communist chiefs said today it was Joseph Stalin's support from the Russian people that kept them from rising against him.

The Central Committee of the Soviet Communist party issued a 6,000-word statement to explain why the country's present rulers waited until after Stalin was dead to denounce him.

It said Stalin was so popular after World War II that the Soviet people would neither have understood nor supported any move against him.

It also asserted that threat of "capitalist interventionism" was another reason the present leadership could not have risked dissent by ousting Stalin. Moreover, it added, the dictator's worst crimes were not revealed until after his death.

The statement, drafted as a resolution of the Central Committee, was spread over two pages of Pravda, the party's newspaper, and beamed abroad by Moscow radio.

It clearly was intended as a reply to critics of the Kremlin's anti-Stalin campaign both inside and outside the Soviet Union.

U. S. Using Old Words Against Russians

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States threw propaganda ammunition against Russia today from bitter words written by the founder of Soviet communism more than 50 years ago.

These words of V. I. Lenin have only recently and recently been revived in Moscow to justify the downgrading of the late Joseph Stalin.

In documents never before officially published, Lenin harshly assailed Great Russian treatment of other peoples in 1922. He predicted that if traditional Russian attitudes toward minority races in the Soviet Union would be drowned in a "chaotic sea of Great Russian racialism like a fly in the milk."

In the opinion of U. S. officials, this prophetic passage from one of the last documents Lenin addressed to his associates has been fully realized.

And they are bearing these and other writings of Lenin to the oppressed peoples concerned. They feel that the Soviet leaders' abandonment of Stalin and their return to the authority of some of Lenin's teachings will give greater significance to Lenin's views.

The American view, now being

U. S. Acts to Set Up Steel Contract Talks

By WILLIAM A. SWARTWORTH

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The government has taken a preliminary step toward revival of stalemated contract talks in the nationwide strike of 650,000 United Steelworkers members.

Both the union and the basic steel industry have indicated willingness to return to the bargaining table. But neither side has made any move in that direction, each apparently waiting for the other to make the first overture.

A tentative move toward possible government intervention, however, was made yesterday by Joseph Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation Service.

Finnegan said he wanted to contract both sides "to discuss the status of the situation and see if and how we can be helped."

He indicated he wished to meet separately in the near future with David J. McDonald, USW president, and John A. Stephens U. S. Steel Corp. vice president and chief industry negotiator.

Finnegan talked by phone with Arthur J. Goldberg, union general counsel, in New York and said he expected to have another talk with Goldberg today in Washington.

School Aid Battle Shapes in House

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House squared off today for the closing rounds of a battle over federal aid to schools.

But it was expected to be late in the day before the $1,600,000,000 school construction bill reached the floor for preliminary voting on a variety of proposals to revise it.

It probably will be Thursday before a final vote is taken. The biggest battle and the loudest talk is expected when Rep. Fowell (D-N.Y.) calls up his anti-segregation amendment. Bitterly opposed by Southern members, it would deny federal school construction grants to states refusing to abide by the Supreme Court's integration ruling.

The new Congress came in the midst of an Army roundup of suspected leaders of the "last" week's three-day uprising.

Western businessmen arriving in Berlin from the closed Potsdam conference said "rebellious" workers wanted they would walk off the job again if the reign of error continued.

Two armored divisions enforced order in the city and cordoned off for suspected rebel leaders.

Roadblocks were thrown up around the city. Soldiers with rifles and fixed bayonets made a house-to-house search and even looked into haystacks in outlying districts as possible rebel hideouts.

Official Polish sources reached in Poznan by telephone said the general strike which started the uprising last Thursday was over and that factories were operating normally.

Western businessmen denied this. They reported hundreds of factory workers have stopped work and more have threatened to do so.

Violence in State Takes Toll of 14

By The Associated Press

A shooting in south Arkansas shortly before Sunday midnight took the state's violent death toll to 14 for the 7-day period.

Deputy Sheriff W. O. Furlough said 12 bullets fired from a 25 caliber automatic pistol claimed the life of a young Negro woman at Magnolia.

Furlough said Mozee Cooper, 37, was being held in connection with the slaying of his 28-year-old wife, Maybelle. The shooting occurred at the Coopers' home. No motive was given.

Survivors include two children, ages 3 and 4.

Half of the total fatalities reported during the week were attributed to highway accidents.

A 2-car collision near West Memphis, Ark. yesterday killed an unidentified white man, about 30 years old. Officers said a laundry mark in the dead man's clothing showed the name "J. Morris," but there was no further identification.

The victim was riding in a car with another man and two women who were injured slightly. The survivors said they were en route from a West Memphis night club to Memphis. None of them could identify their dead companion.

A 29-year-old Kewell, Ark., man, Robert Chaffin, drowned in East Lake near Holly Grove while trying to rescue his sister who had fallen from a boat.

Sheriff H. H. McKenzie said Chaffin jumped into the water in an attempt to rescue Mrs. Katherine Daniels of North Little Rock. She reached shore safely.

Other traffic deaths during the week occurred near Malvern, Forrest City, Marion, Pine Bluff, Fayetteville, and Blytheville.

A farmer was dragged to death by a mule near Conway; an accidental shooting cost a life at North Little Rock; there was one death each from a mine-cave-in near Malvern, shooting at a Pine City and an accidental electrocution at Fayetteville.

Work Stoppage Poses New Pole Strike Threat

By JOSEPH FLEMING

BERLIN (UPI) — New work stoppages that threatened to blossom into another general strike today hit riotpolice.

The new stoppages came in the midst of an Army roundup of suspected leaders of the "last" week's three-day uprising.

Western businessmen arriving in Berlin from the closed Potsdam conference said "rebellious" workers wanted they would walk off the job again if the reign of error continued.

Not Behind in Air Power, Wilson Insists

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Wilson insisted today that the country has not fallen behind the Soviets in air power development, and said that "U. S. B-52 heavy bomber is 'quite superior' to its Russian counterpart."

He told the Senate Airpower in Vietnam subcommittee that the B-52s were "superior" to the Russian Bisons with the exception of the B-52's as the B-52's to the Bisons "we would be greatly worried."

It was Wilson's second day before the subcommittee which is making a general study of U. S. air power with particular emphasis on this country's position relative to the Soviet Union.

Last Friday Wilson contended in a general statement that the Eisenhower administration has given the nation a "dynamic military power," and cautioned "over" of the military lest it cause alarm to the Russians.

Influenced to some extent by the subcommittee's hearings, Congress has voted 600 million dollars more for the Air Force than the administration had asked for in the fiscal year beginning this week.

Nine Injured in Atomic Plant Blast

By JACK LOTTO

NEW YORK (INS) — An explosion in an atomic research laboratory of the Sylvania Electric Products Corp. injured nine employees today and released radioactive materials that may have contaminated some of the personnel.

The explosion took place in the Queens plant, ten miles from the heart of New York City.

It was termed "moderate" by a general manager of the atomic division of Sylvania, Walter J. Kingston.

But Kingston said some 4000000 curies of radioactive material were released, and that the explosion had caused the release of some 4000000 curies of radioactive material.

A number of policemen and newspaper photographers were rushed to the scene to take pictures of the explosion and the release of radioactive material.

Kingston emphasized that no radiation danger was in the laboratory building itself.

He said the blast occurred in a small room where a few workers were at the time.

Love at First Sight? Lonely Oldsters Keeps Bank Account Secret

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a young widow of 23 with a 4-year-old son. My husband was killed in an auto accident nearly two years ago. Last week I attended a dance and met a real fine boy. He was an immediate interest in me and in one short week asked me to marry him. He treats my little boy like a king. Could love come that fast?

Dear Dorothy Dix: Love certainly has been known to come at first sight, but often without a second, more searching look. Marrying to a man you scarcely know is a dangerous business. Please do some careful considering before rushing into a situation that easily could be tragic. Of course the nice part is that due consideration could just as easily lead to a happy marriage. It will pay to wait.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a young widow of 23 with a 4-year-old son. My husband was killed in an auto accident nearly two years ago. Last week I attended a dance and met a real fine boy. He was an immediate interest in me and in one short week asked me to marry him. He treats my little boy like a king. Could love come that fast?

Dear Dorothy Dix: Love certainly has been known to come at first sight, but often without a second, more searching look. Marrying to a man you scarcely know is a dangerous business. Please do some careful considering before rushing into a situation that easily could be tragic. Of course the nice part is that due consideration could just as easily lead to a happy marriage. It will pay to wait.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Some time back you had a letter from a widow who lost her husband through an unfortunate marriage. I realize that many senior citizens who are lonely just to marry on account of just such instances.

Well, Dorothy, Dix, there are grove, Mary Lynn Kennedy, Mrs. Hill Stancil, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCreary, Mrs. and Mrs. Ralph Fyfe all of Shreveport, La.

I've been alone for two years, trying to make the right decisions and clubs I must have sort of person. I have no desire to see your column as a making money, I assure you. I want to be someone solution to our problem.

Dear Mr. Thomas: The truly lonely seniors who would make wonderful, considerate companions for the right persons far outweigh the unscrupulous. Unfortunately, the latter are the ones who get the wrong kind, life can be very miserable indeed.

ALMA: Take the gifts the gods provide in the comforting feeling of a wee nest egg and since you are being deprived thereby don't question. Of course, it would be nice if he didn't keep secrets, but if that's the only one, be thankful.

DOROTHY DIX

Love at First Sight?
Lonely Oldsters
Keeps Bank Account Secret

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm a young widow of 23 with a 4-year-old son. My husband was killed in an auto accident nearly two years ago. Last week I attended a dance and met a real fine boy. He was an immediate interest in me and in one short week asked me to marry him. He treats my little boy like a king. Could love come that fast?

Dear Dorothy Dix: Love certainly has been known to come at first sight, but often without a second, more searching look. Marrying to a man you scarcely know is a dangerous business. Please do some careful considering before rushing into a situation that easily could be tragic. Of course the nice part is that due consideration could just as easily lead to a happy marriage. It will pay to wait.

Dear Dorothy Dix: Some time back you had a letter from a widow who lost her husband through an unfortunate marriage. I realize that many senior citizens who are lonely just to marry on account of just such instances.

Well, Dorothy, Dix, there are grove, Mary Lynn Kennedy, Mrs. Hill Stancil, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McVey, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pyle, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James E. Haynes, Elaine Hargrove, Lurline Hargrove, Billy Hillman, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brown, Dolores Ann Brown, Miss Lydia David, and Mrs. Inez M. Stancil of Shreveport, La.

Joe Rogers and his family, currently boys of Little Rock, recently heard daily over KTHS, which will be used in Hope in the future. Anyone interested in attending this school should contact Horace A. Kenney, Jr. at 1401 S. Main Street, Hope, Ark.

Dear Dorothy Dix: I've been married for five years to a man 10 years my senior. He's very sweet, an excellent provider, never quarrels with me, and he's very generous allowance he gives me. I'm always at home when he isn't working and it's helpful about house. However, I know nothing about his savings. I know he has money in the bank but I don't know how much. He gets real mad if I question him about it.

Dear Alvin: Take the gifts the gods provide. A comfortable feeling of a wee nest egg and since you're being deprived thereby don't question. Of course, it would be nice if he didn't keep secrets, but if that's the only one, be thankful.

Yanks in Twin Win to Go Four Games in Lead

By FRED DOWN
United Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees are in an old familiar position today for the first place on the July 4 schedule because they're winning "the bums" without mercy.

The Yankees demonstrated today when they knew this ancient formula for winning pennants yesterday when they downed the seventh-place Washington Senators 3-2 and 8-6, to go four games ahead of the Red Sox.

The Yankees won the game when Joe Collins walked off a "wrong way" two-run homer in the eighth inning and capped the nightcap on the wings of Mickey Vernon's blow.

Mantle's blow in the seventh inning was a put him right-handed and the other left-handed. Thirty-eight students were enrolled in the various departments with the following ladies as instructors:

Games Tonight in Baseball League Play

Three games are scheduled in the Little League play tonight with the Lions taking on the Cubs, the Cubs taking on the Braves and the Braves taking on the Pirates.

The final game of the first half of Pony League play pairs Hope Builders against Hope Hawks at 6 p. m. The game of the second half sees Hope Auto going against First National.

Big and Pony loop All-Stars won games over the weekend by lopsided scores. The Big Loop Stars downed Prescott 18 to 2 with Ling's four for five the best hitting. J. Gilbert got three for five and Jones went for four.

The Pony loop game was even worse with Hope downing Arkadelphia 26 to 4. The locals provided out 30 hits, all for extra bases except three. Hall got three triples and a homer in four times at bat. Harold was the winner.

Baseball July 2
The Hope Bears will play Stamps at 8 p. m. July 4, at City Park.
